

Dear FCC,
Repeal of FCC rules on cross-ownership of broadcast and print media will not benefit the public. Already, corporate ownership of media gives existing media a filter that leaves out stories and facts regarding the respective corporations and creates an "imbalance of information."
This sort of news is important to consumers.
Please at least leave the existing rules in place. Thank you.